Jack Brunson Named To Advisory Board

First Federal Savings and Loan Association of the Wiregrass has announced the election of J. R. "Jack" Brunson to its Advisory Board of Directors. First Federal was organized in Elba in 1959 and moved its operation to Enterprise in 1963. The twenty-one million dollar savings and loan operates offices in Enterprise and Troy.

Brunson, of 192 Pine Circle, Elba, is president of National Security Insurance Company and National Security Fire and Casualty Company both of Elba. He has been associated with the insurance company since 1953 and became president in January of this year following the death of his brother, W. L. Brunson, who preceded him as chief executive officer. He is also a director of the Elba Exchange Bank, National Security Fire and Casualty Company, and Nasco.

A former mayor of the city of Elba, Brunson has served as chairman of the Elba Water and Electric Board. He is past instructor for the Dale Carnegie courses and served in the U.S. Army. Brunson is married to the former Edna Allen of Troy. They have three children, Jackie, Edna, and Barry. He is a 1953 graduate of the University of Alabama.

State Political Races Attract Host Of Candidates

When Gov. George Wallace announced he would not be a candidate for public office for the first time in decades, many thought the upcoming election would lack the "spark" associated with a Wallace campaign. Well, the spark is out, but not because of lack of interest. The spark was doused when Wallace's retirement opened with "floodgates" for politicians hoping to move into the Governor's Mansion.

Qualifying for the two major parties ended on Friday, July 7, and the race for governor had attracted 13 Democrats and 3 Republicans. The biggest surprise entry came when Cornelia Wallace qualified. A last minute qualifier, the Governor's former wife stated her entry would give the race the "excitement" it lacked. Another mild surprise came with the entry of former Gov. Still contending that James did not comply with party rules in changing parties.

The other republican candidate is Virginia Walster of Huntsville. The Attorney General's race attracted 9 hopefuls—Julian McPhillips of Montgomery, Sen. Joe Fine of Russellville, Rep. Douglas Johnson of Mobile, and Ralph "Shorty" Price of Phenix City, District Attorney Charles Graddock of Mobile, Bill Stephens of Montgomery, Sen. Dudley Perry of Tuskegee, Ray Acton of Montgomery, District Attorney Ted Taylor of Prattville, Earl "Choo Choo" Gavis of Mobile and Gene Myracle of Gadsden.

For the first time since the U. S. Constitution was changed in 1901, Alabama voters will elect two members to the U. S. Senate at the same election. Seven Democrats and one Republican qualified for each of the two seats that will be vacant, one due to the retirement of Sen. John Sparkman after 32 years and the other by the death of Sen. Jim Allen on June 1.

Sparkman's Senate seat is being sought by Democrats—Sen. John Baker of Rainville, Mrs. Frank E. Stewart of Piedmont, U. S. Rep. Walter Flowers of Tuscaloosa, Chief Justice Howell Heflin of Tusculum, Gordon Tucker of Montgomery, McDaniel "Mac" Newton of Dothan and Glen Hewitt of Huntsville.

Popular GOP leader Jim Martin is the lone Republican seeking Sparkman's seat. Mrs. Maryon Allen, who was appointed last month to fill her late husband's seat is a candidate for the remaining two years of the term and is being challenged by six other Democrats. Opponents are Dan Alexander of Mobile, Sen. Danny "Passmore" of Montgomery, Frances Davis of Ramey, Tom Walker of Jasper, Junita McDaniel of Montgomery and Richard Woods of Birmingham.

Bill Waldon Is Candidate For Coffee County Sheriff

"I felt four years ago, and still feel, that I am well-qualified for the position as sheriff of Coffee County," said Bill Waldon of Elba.

Waldon feels the Sheriff's Office is a very important part of a county's government, and the department should not only maintain law and order, but should also be available to give a helping hand to any citizen in time of need.

Waldon has worked as a police officer, and at present, is an Elba businessman. He is a native of Coffee County, reared in Fairview Community. He has been a resident of Elba for 10 years. He now serves as Assistant Chief on the Elba Volunteer Fire Department, and as Lieutenant on the Elba Volunteer Rescue Squad.

He is married to the former Frances Hudson, also of the Fairview Community. They have two daughters—Dottie, 16, a student at Elba High School, and Sheri, 10, a student at Elba Middle School.

Matthews Is Not Candidate For Office

Fonell "Matt" Matthews announced this week he had withdrawn as a candidate for Tax Collector of Coffee County. A native of Enterprise, Mrs. Matthews graduated from Enterprise High School. She is married to Robert Drinkwater and they have one daughter, Karen, age 16.

"I appreciate the interest everyone has shown and thought they'll be another time," said Matthews.

Matthews owns and operates a grocery store in Claychatchee.

Mrs. Drinkwater Wants Tax Assessor's Office

Mrs. Linda Drinkwater, of Enterprise, has qualified to seek the Democratic nomination for Tax Assessor of Coffee County in the Sept. 5 primary.

A native of Enterprise, Mrs. Drinkwater graduated from Enterprise High School. She is married to Robert Drinkwater and they have one daughter, Karen, age 16.

"I am very interested in seeing that everybody receives a fair and reasonable tax assessment on their property. I would like to see the workings of the courthouse and the only way you can do that is get in it," said Mrs. Drinkwater.

Fuller Is Seeking Re-election To Board

W. R. "Brother Ras" Fuller announces his candidacy for re-election to the Coffee County Board of Education, Place 4. Fuller has served continuously on the Board since his election in 1959, and has, for the past 3 years, served as Chairman. During the last several years the school system has seen many improvements, made possible through the cooperative efforts of the board members, superintendent, other school personnel, and the citizens of Coffee County.

Fuller is married to the former Sara Vaughan of Elba. They have three children and four grandchildren, and reside in the Zion Chapel community. Mr. Fuller worked at Dorsey Trailers for 25 years and has served as a minister for 28 years.

Fuller is grateful for the opportunity he has had to serve the wonderful boys and girls of Coffee County. In announcing his candidacy, Mr. Fuller makes the following statement to the citizens of Coffee County: "Without the assistance of the citizens of our great county, these improvements would have been impossible. We cannot, however, be satisfied now and stop our efforts. Many tasks still remain to be accomplished, and we must all dedicate ourselves to a successful resolution of these problems. I wish to assure the citizens of Coffee County that if re-elected, I will, with God's help, continue my efforts in seeking continued progress for the Coffee County School System. Our children deserve no less than our best efforts."

Farmers Have Received Over Six Million $

Alabama livestock producers have received $6,937,053 from the Emergency Feed Program, Senator Maryon Allen has announced. She said the assistance is to help farmers recover losses suffered during the severe drought of last winter and spring. Of the 46 states aided, Alabama received the fifth largest amount.

The Department of Agriculture approved 8,135 Alabama applications for relief to provide 225,726 pounds of feed. Sen. Allen said. The number of applications that actually have been paid total 7,644 for 356,093 pounds of feed.

SEVERAL NEWS ARTICLES INCLUDING LOCAL POLITICS CITY COUNCIL, W & B HAVE BEEN HELD OVER DUE TO LIMITED SPACE.

Reserve Unit To Make Local Surveys

Members of the 40th Civil Affairs Group, an Army Reserve unit headquartered in Anatolia, will be surveying communities in seven counties during its two weeks of annual training which began July 9. The 40th will be assisting the Southeast Alabama Regional Planning and Development Commission in surveys that will cover 39 communities, including Elba. They will perform sewer and water surveys and other work in Elba.

"Today's economic situation dictates that the military and civilian sectors wisely use the resources available," said a spokesman for the civil affairs unit.

"While our unit is receiving mission-oriented training, the SEARADC and the towns it serves will be receiving important information that will provide long-range benefits for community planning," the spokesman added.

Elba Mayor Robert Folsom, speaking on behalf of the entire city governing body said, "We, the mayor and council, are grateful for the valuable information." Folsom also had high praise for the Southeast Alabama Regional Planning Commission in Dothan for their continuing assistance to Elba.

School Board Hears Athletic Financial Report

The Board of Education met on Tuesday, July 11, and heard a financial report on the Elba High School Athletic Department. The report revealed the program took in $30,477.93 and had expenditures of $21,210.05 for a loss of $9,267.88. The detailed report showed that $4,612 was received in payment for reserved seats at the football games, while total gate receipts for the five home games came to $11,843.80. The basketball program brought in $1,781.06 from admissions to games. The largest expenditure came in equipment and upkeep, where a total of $12,576.10 was spent.

Ray Triumphant In Election

Democrat James Ray has won Tuesday's special election to fill the unexpired District 68 House of Representatives seat vacated by Joel Folmar, who was appointed District Attorney for Pike and Coffee Counties.

Ray defeated Republican Don Walker for the right to serve during the upcoming special session of the Alabama Legislature. Both men are candidates for a full term, and will again face the voters, beginning with the September 5th primaries, and will probably clash head-on in the November general election.

Ray polled 185 of the Coffee County votes while Walker polled only 39 in the county. District 68 is composed of Pike and portions of Barbour, Bullock and Coffee counties.

Reports late Tuesday night gave Ray a total of 2282 votes to Walker 1596. There were still three boxes to be counted, but these didn't contain enough votes to change the results of the election.

Elba Mayor Robert Folsom, speaking on behalf of the entire city governing body said, "We, the mayor and council, are grateful for the valuable information." Folsom also had high praise for the Southeast Alabama Regional Planning Commission in Dothan for their continuing assistance to Elba.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

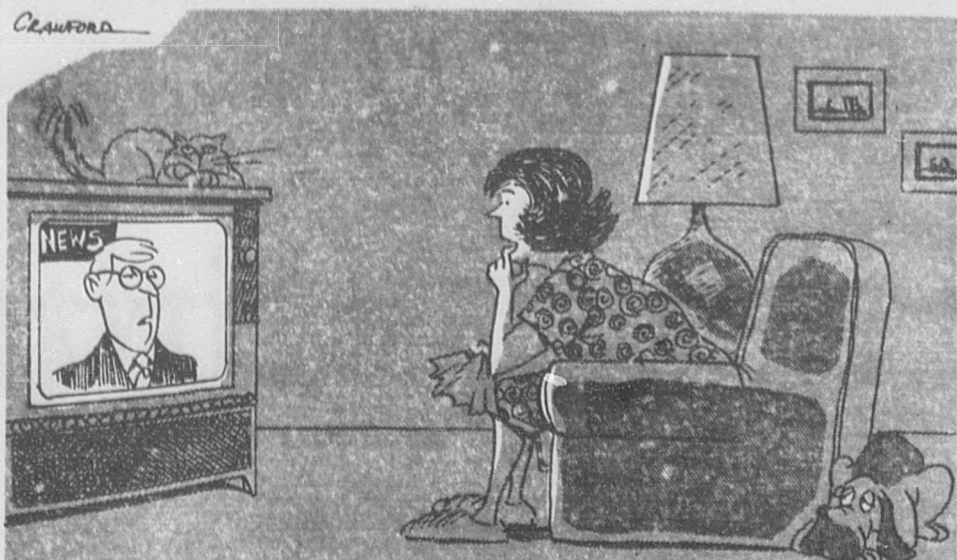

Last week you editor noted the fact that a preacher was hinting for a mess of fresh fish from his wrongdoings. Well, at that time there were intentions of giving Ed Henne a mess of fish, but alas, as it often happens with me, there just was not enough for both of us and so he gets left out again and I still haven't made up for any of the bad things charged to my account!

The city fathers finally got around to action on pay raises Tuesday night. After it was over, there seemed to be more that dislaid the final decision than liked it. Even the councilmen themselves were complaining about not having enough money to give raises high enough to even keep up with the cost of living, for the city employees. One councilman was overheard to say "We are going to have to watch our pennies so that we can give them a fair raise next year." To have passed out raises to all who deserved them, and at the rates required to keep up with the world, the councilmen seemed to feel it would take additional tax money, and the tax burden was about as high as the public will accept at the present time. They are probably right.

There is a bunch of folks waiting to see their names on the ballot September 5th. We haven't gotten an actual count of the names to appear on the machine, but we wonder if a single machine will handle the mass of names. An even greater problem is getting the millions of people in Alabama familiar with all the candidates. There is fear we will only get familiar with a few names and just vote for a name we have heard in other races, even if we heard that name as the candidate was arrested for DWI or mail fraud.

Blood is always thicker than water, the saying goes. This often accounts for people voting for a relative and is accepted by all, even the opposing candidate. However, with Cornelia Wallace and her uncle, former Governor James "Big Jim" Folsom, running for governor, some folks may have to get a doctor to take blood samples and see just which candidate they are more "blood kin to." The surprise of Cornelia entering the race was shared by this editor, as she had several months ago sat down with us and discussed the good and weak points of many of the major candidates, and not once was anything said that could even now indicate she was considering the race. Maybe she was thinking of the race all the time, and we just don't know enough about politics to understand the conversation.

The folks in the Lee and Stinson communities have been trying for years to get water systems in their areas. During this time the government has changed from a policy of approving all or most, to a policy of only approving extensions of existing systems. Now, those folks have asked the Elba utility system to supply them with a water system. This will be looked into and if approved, handled the same way the proposed system out the opposite direction is being handled—entirely with federal funds—both grants and loans to be paid back by the additional users themselves. We endorse this plan and hope it becomes a reality.

Mayor Bob Folsom is known to butt his head against a brick wall time and time again. He may be doing that now as he works to get federal help for re-opening the Pea River power plant for generating electricity. But, this time we encourage him to continue his struggle. It is just such continuous butting that often breaks loose federal funds, and during this time of rising energy cost, the free energy created by water running over the dam looks mighty enticing.

Representative Jimmy Holley has managed somehow to come up without any opposition for reelection to the State House. We have not yet admitted to him that it might be because he has done a good job, but that is a strong possibility. Jimmy is a personal friend, but we sometimes disagree with the way he votes on particular issues. However, overall we feel he has done a good job, and this chance to return to Montgomery is a great compliment to him.

Who goes out of this world for you?

We do... General Telephone.

Twenty thousand miles out, and more.

It's part of an almost-quarter-billion-dollar project that makes it easier for you to make long-distance phone calls.

What you see here is one of the earth stations that are part of the system. It beams calls—18,000 at a clip—to a satellite hovering more than 20,000 miles above the equator. At the same time, it gathers in the same number of calls, and sends them out over our regular phone lines.

It's part of the incredibly complex telephone system that's just about the most effective and efficient communications system the world has ever seen.

And it has reliability built in, whether it's an earth station talking to outer space—or a cute little telephone that's built like Mickey Mouse. Because we realize how important it is to keep you in touch with your world.

We spend hundreds of millions of dollars every year, making sure that when you pick up your phone... it works.

Get The Facts

By Louise Stokes

Last week's article stated that it is not when or how often one drinks that determines whether he has a drinking problem, but whether he can control his drinking when he does drink.

A man may drink only on weekends, but if he often gets drunk, he has a problem. If his drinking is causing continuing trouble with his job, family, or health, he has a problem. If his drinking is costing more than he can afford, he has a problem. He needs help.

Loss of control can occur at any time in a person's drinking history. Age has little to do with alcoholism. It can happen to a person at almost any age. A young man 18 years old realized that every time he drank he got drunk. He didn't want to get drunk—he had lost control. He was alcoholic.

Another misconception that many people have is that someone who drinks only beer cannot be an alcoholic. It makes absolutely no difference what kind of alcoholic beverage one drinks, if it has alcohol in it, he can become alcoholic. If a man drinks a six-pack of beer, he has consumed six ounces of alcohol. If he drinks half a pint of hard liquor, he has consumed eight ounces of alcohol. Somehow the half pint of hard liquor sounds much worse, but there's only two ounces difference in the amount of alcohol consumed.

People also have the mistaken idea that no one is alcoholic unless he has to have a drink in the morning. Again, it is not when one drinks, but whether he can control the amount he drinks. It's true that a "morning drink" is one of the symptoms of the chronic stages of alcoholism, but this usually doesn't happen for a number of years. One can be alcoholic without craving a drink in the morning.

If you have lost control, if alcohol is causing continuing trouble in any department of your life, you need help.

PASTOR'S CORNER

James T. Brock

Last week we called attention to the words of a chorus which invites the Spirit of God to "Break me, Melt me, Mold me, and Fill me," and we discussed the matter of breaking the resistance of the human will to the Divine will. This week we have for consideration the second in the series—"Melt Me."

As a teenager, I worked in a printing office where all the type was either hand set or set on a Linotype machine. The lead used for setting on the Linotype machine had to be melted after every use and in the process, cleaned from those impurities that had been collected. The solid lead type was placed in a cast iron pot and heated to the boiling point. As the molten lead bubbled in the cauldron, a detergent substance was put in the mixture which forced all the impurities to rise to the top. These foreign substances were then skimmed off and the lead was poured into molds to cool. In the spiritual realm, the process of being "melted" is important. The Bible speaks of the "refiner's fire" which has as its purpose cleansing. In the vision of Isaiah in the Temple, the great prophet experienced cleansing that was associated with hot coals from off the altar of God. The melting process at the hands of the Spirit of God involves making life pliable, and in so doing, allowing these things that ought not to be there to be taken away. It is not enough just to be surrendered to the will of God. One may have a deeply moving and emotional experience with the Lord and still not make the necessary move toward making his or her life acceptable to the Lord.

To pray for God to "Melt Me" is an invitation for his refining fire to touch the depths of my very character and make the necessary revisions to bring me into conformity to his best plans for me. The application of the fire of the Lord may in fact be a painful experience, as any burning is, but it is a necessary process as burning away certain tissue is sometimes necessary in medical procedure, so it is necessary in the spiritual realm. Beyond the pain of melting, there is the assurance of finding the "full and perfect will of God."

Spirit of the Living God, fall fresh on me; Break me, melt me, mold me, fill me.

Spirit of the Living God, fall fresh on me.

Boat Races Set For Guntersville

The Guntersville Jaycees are hosting this year's Outboard Performance Craft (OPC) Marathon National Championship on July 29-30, 1978. Guntersville is located 45 miles south of Huntsville, Alabama on Hwy. 431 and 60 miles north of Birmingham, Alabama on Hwy. 79.

Ten classes of boats will be competing in one hour Marathon races for $10,000.00 in cash and trophies. Racing will be from 10:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. on Saturday, July 29 and from 12:00 noon to 5:00 p.m. on Sunday, July 30. Practice runs will be on Friday, July 28, and just prior to race days.

This year's race is the 32nd Annual Dixie Cup Regatta. The oldest continuous Regatta in the United States. The OPC Marathon Championships is sponsored by the Guntersville Jaycees, the oldest sanctioned club in the American Power Boat Association.

Racing will be on a 1 1/2 mile oval course surveyed for records on Spring Creek, located behind the Guntersville Jaycees. Guntersville has some of the fastest waters in the world as verified by the prop record of 285.6 mph set in 1968 and the jet boat record of 285.213 set in 1967.

The Men's Class A tourney will be held in Andalusia next weekend with 5 teams battling for four state berths. The teams are A.F.C. of Andalusia, Skinner's of Enterprise, Brewton, Altmore Indians and Hartford Merchants. The Class A State Tourney is set for Cullman.

The Men's Class B tourney will take place next weekend in Enterprise with 30 teams expected to compete for the 7-state playoff spots. Among the teams entered are Cutler's of Abbeville, Midland City Merchants, Headland Merchants and Twitcheil, Food Service, Renaissance Spa and Elmsburg, all of Dothan. Teams from Elba expected to enter are Hardy's Construction, The People's Bank, Wise's, Hospital, Cook Chevrolet and Kleinerts. The state tourney will be held on August 11, 12 and 13 at Montgomery's Lagoon Park complex.

Local softball fans should make plans to go out and see some tournament action!

Speaking of softball tournaments, the Super Slow-Pitch League will be in Montgomery on July 21, 22 and 23, and the top teams in the nation will be on hand. The fences at Lagoon Park are 200 feet long and 10 feet high, but the batters have no trouble "popping 'em out." Teams entered include Ken Sanders Ford, Nelson Paints, Howard's and many others. See you there!

I haven't played golf in about a year, but Saturday a group of local "hackers" and I will go to Montgomery and challenge the new Lagoon Park course. I've heard the course has a lot of water and is a very testing layout. Oh, well, maybe the feeless foursome will survive.

The Dixie Youth and Babe Ruth All-Star teams compete in sub-district tournaments this week, and all local fans should support them. The Dixie Youth bunch has a young squad, but they have a lot of desire and could pull a surprise! The Babe Ruth team is a hard-hitting group that should do pretty good. I've heard they are a little lack in pitching, but if they can hit, they can compete with anyone.

Good luck!

Greg Brunson and I went fishing last Wednesday morning around 6:30 and caught a good mess of fish. I've always joked about my lack of fishing skills, but after last week's outing, I guess I can catch 'em, too! Below is a picture made by an "unbeliever!" Doris Farmer, of our catch. Not bad, eh, Mrs. Whitman!

The state high school all-star game is coming up in a couple of weeks and I think the squads have a unique blend of talent. The 3A-4A squads have 6 players from Birmingham, but they're not all on the same team! Four Birmingham rounders will be on the North squad, while two players will suit up with the South. I knew Birmingham was big, but ...statewide?

The softball season is drawing to a close across the nation, and that means that some 100,000 A.S.A. sanctioned teams are getting ready for district tournaments. There are 166 sanctioned teams in this district, and for them the road to the State Tourney starts this weekend.

The Men's Major Tourney will be held Saturday in Dothan with 6 teams competing. Six state tourney berths are up for grabs, and that means all six will be heading for Lagoon Park in Montgomery on August 4, 5 and 6. The teams are Edafina Merchants, Slocumb Merchants, Dothan Southerners, Dothan Independents, Hudson Industries and Bennett & Ellis.

The Women's Major and Class A are both set for this weekend, with the tournaments to be played in Newton and Enterprise. Six teams will earn a State Tourney berth from the Major Division, while four will make it from the Class A affair. Some of the top women's teams are the Enterprise Merchants, Ray's Restaurant of Dothan and the Rockies of Ashford.

The Men's Class A tourney will be held in Andalusia next weekend with 5 teams battling for four state berths. The teams are A.F.C. of Andalusia, Skinner's of Enterprise, Brewton, Altmore Indians and Hartford Merchants. The Class A State Tourney is set for Cullman.

City Electric Rates To Increase By 15 Per Cent August 1

The Elba Water and Electric Board had a meeting scheduled for 3:30 Wednesday afternoon, after press time, to discuss an immediate increase in the local electric rates.

Chairman Charles Hayes III said earlier Wednesday that he had notified early Wednesday morning that the cost of electricity from Alabama Electric Co-op (AEC) would increase by 15% on the August 1 billing. Hayes explained that this is an increase in the wholesale "pooling" rate with Alabama Power Company as approved by the Federal Power Commission in Washington.

This 15% increase is an interim rate and could vary up or down two or three per cent after the true pooling rate is established.

Hayes said this increase would mean a minimum $15,000 increase in the cost of electricity purchased by the Board. He noted that some months now, expenses exceed income, but the rate increase was postponed until this new rate could be established, thus limiting the increases to only one instead of several a year.

While the action to be taken by the board was unknown as this article was being written, the economics of the situation leaves little question as to what will be the end results of the afternoon meeting.

Local Political Scene Is Crowded With Hopefuls

Local politics will be competing with statewide politics on September 5 when the voters are asked to select Democratic and Republican nominees for various local, state and national offices.

The figure varies due to overlapping districts within counties, but most voters will have approximately 100 names starting them in the race on election day.

This is after the unopposed candidates have, by law, been omitted from the primary ballot. About 25% of these are Coffee County candidates and the balance are multi-county or state-at-large candidates.

Leading the field locally is the five men seeking the office of sheriff. Incumbent Neil Grantham is opposed by newcomer Bob Brown of Enterprise, former deputy Don Rayford, and two candidates that opposed him four years ago - Bill Waldon of Elba, and Charlie Webb of Enterprise.

The race for coroner of the Elba division drew two candidates with incumbent Marvin McIlwain being opposed by Hiram Glass. In the Enterprise division incumbent Danny Bradley is opposed by a medical doctor, James F. Paulk.

It is highly unusual for members of the medical profession to enter this race, especially in Alabama where no laws call for trained medical people to hold this office. The pay is almost nothing, with gas mileage to death scenes being one of the larger expenses of the office.

Incumbent Jimmy Haley is unopposed for re-election to the Alabama House of Representatives, while former Senator Wallace Miller of Enterprise has two opponents in his quest to serve a full four-year term in the Alabama Senate.

Nathan Mathis, chairman of the Houston County Commission, and Wayne Smith are both candidates for the same seat.

The list of candidates for membership on the Democratic Executive Committee is long; however, only Beat Ten and Beat Eleven have more than the minimum membership that has qualified. In Beat Ten, Myron Thomas and Donald Hussey are running, and in Beat 11, James F. Wilson and Wayne Smith are both candidates for the same seat.

The Elba City Council meeting of July 18 was probably the shortest on record. The meeting was scheduled for 7 p.m., but didn't get underway until ten or fifteen minutes later. The meeting was over and adjourned by 7:40 with all the business completed.

After the reading of the minutes, the council heard follow-up reports on several projects. A request from Ed Gullion on a sewer line project was turned down by the council when Councilman Cleo Hawkins reported the entire project would be on private property. Police Chief Johnston responded to an inquiry about a dog problem discussed at the previous meeting. He said the case had not been settled and was going to court. Hastin Blair had complained that a neighbor's dog was causing his wife trouble.

An adjustment was made in the pay schedule adopted last week when it was discovered that one employee was getting ten cents an hour more than others doing the same job.

Another item carried forward from the last meeting was a requested rezoning from R-1 to B-2 of some Troy Highway property owned by Carlton Ray. The council voted unanimously on a motion by Hawkins not to rezone the property. A petition from fifteen to twenty neighbors disapproving of the rezoning was presented to the council by two of the neighbors present at the meeting.

Mayor Folsom was planning to use the material to fill a wash in the levee. The councilmen noted they wanted this fixed but not from private property, unless it was piled near the street.
